ANATOMY OF PEACE

An Examination of Conflicts Between Nations

This course is intended to give the student an appreciation of the part which scientific method can play in the understanding and control of international relations.

The first seven lectures involve consideration of some current issues in order to enable the student to relate theoretical and analytical work to practical problems. The series will conclude with a "peace-war" game in which all students will have an opportunity to participate. The course is offered in collaboration with the Canadian Peace Research and Education Association.
